

Women's Missionary Society Hold Conference Here

The Women's Missionary Society of the United Methodist Church held its annual rally in the Mountain View Church, Didsbury, on June 16 and 17. There was a splendid attendance, nearly all of the churches having delegates and officers to represent their individual societies. Mrs. Lydia Suder, director of the society was in charge of the meeting.

This organization has 20 individual societies and 311 members at present. Throughout the conference of the church the W.M.S. raised $42,484.14 for foreign missionary work. This conference reported having raised $4,400.00. The societies do much sewing for foreign work as well as work in the home land. The evaluation of all they did, including the cash contributions brought, the grand total of their giving to $4,429.34.

During the past year gifts and lesser projects included placing plastic dishes to the value of $132 in the college, and cash contributions toward the fares of the director of the conferences, Mrs. Schoenhal, and the secretary's wife, Mrs. Reilly, to Africa. Mrs. Schoenhal will be with us during the former part of the camp meeting, which convenes July 4.

Sewing contributions went to the hospital in Africa, and much material to the missionaries, who dispensed the articles to those who needed them on their fields.

The W.M.S. this year will undertake to raise $6000. They support missionaries to the amount of $3500, supply fuel for refrigerators, support the work of literature distribution in foreign lands such as Africa and India. They have pledged help for a new church in Brazil, and a Bible school for the Negro tribes in Africa.

Besides this they will again contribute toward a definite project in the college here.

The motto for the convention was "Reach the Unreached." Rev. John Gamble and his wife spoke several times, and Miss Myrtle Anderson spoke on her work in Africa, telling us much concerning the educational work of which she has been supervisor. The Gambles showed pictures of their work in the Mountain View Church graciously entertained over 100 guests during these days, and the ladies are to be commended for their hospitality.

Reorganization of the society resulted in the following elections: director, Mrs. Lydia Suder; assistant director, Mrs. Ray Shantz; secretary, Mrs. Alta Brado; treasurer, Mrs. H. Oke; youth director, Mrs. N. W. Swalm; memorial fund director, Mrs. A. Traub; hospital supplies, Mrs. W. Reist; Mrs. Brayley; report supplies, Mrs. Sam Eby.

Reports of presidents of societies showed marked interest and progress throughout the year.

WESTERDALE NEWS

(From Our Own Correspondent)

The Westerdale school picnic was held last Friday afternoon when the teacher, children and parents journeyed to Red Lodge Park for the occasion. All enjoyed a most pleasant afternoon at swimming, playing softball, etc. Incidentally the school children defeated the parents by a wide margin in the softball game.

Miss Greta Kershaw, bride-elect of this month, was the recipient of many useful gifts at a miscellaneous shower held at the hall on Saturday evening, with approximately 50 relatives and friends present.

Mrs. Kershaw was seated under a canopy of pink, with her mother and one of the bridesmaids, Barbara Jackson, who assisted in opening the gifts.

After a short program of contests and readings, a Dr. and Nurse were called for to perform an emergency operation, at which time Mrs. E. P. Jackson (as nurse), wearing one of Greta's nursing aid uniforms, appeared wheeling in an improvised stretcher bearing an unconscious man. After a brief examination by the doctor, the assistant nurse (Greta), was asked to complete the operation - removal of the sheet revealed the many gifts.

A lovely lunch was served by the Willing Workers, who were sponsors of the occasion.

Mrs. Martin and daughter, Mrs. S. Hunt and a friend, all of Calgary, visited over the weekend at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. Jones.

Members of the Didsbury visited at the weekend with her daughter, Mrs. J. E. Bolton.

To all the students and teachers who are leaving this year, we wish the best of luck. As for the rest — see you in September!

The high school diamond was the scene of a very interesting softball game on Thursday night of last week when the high school team and the Didsbury ladies' club locked horns. 'Twas a good game for the first time in the history of the league on the younger set and the final score was 27 to 5 in favor of the senior club.

This was a different story for the Didsbury representatives on Sunday afternoon when a team of gals from Bowness downed the locals to the tune of 17-7 at the Memorial Centre diamond.

Ramblin' and Roamin'

Just For The Record . . .

We visited the local hail suppression headquarters out at the butte one day last week and things were really humming. From now until the hail threat has passed the, now-famous coke burners will make a big effort to suppress the white menace that robs farmers of a year's work in a few minutes. The set-up here is equipped with ultra-modern forecasting devices and they're piped in on a long-range forecast system. All we hope is that the "smokers" can play on a par with their previous performance. They've got a reputation to live up to — can they do it? We all hope so!

Just For The Record . . .

There are still those smiling faces on the main stem (some will be frozen there until the next election) who have it figured out how the writer of this column voted in the recent federal election; we get the digs daily, and often. Where do we stand? Behind the government — the choice of the people. If you can't beat 'em, join 'em!

Just For The Record . . .

This tired old staff of ours is going to close the door on our office for a week; come July 10th there will be no issue of The Pioneer. You need a rest from the "Ramblin' and Roamin'" and we think he needs one as well. It would be appreciated if advertisers, correspondents, and others who wish to have items in our next issue would supply us with their copy as early as possible for the pre-holiday paper. We want to get away early if at all possible.

Just For The Record . . .

There's a touching story of a braggart young man who said to his girl: "I bet you wouldn't marry me!" As it turned out she called his bet, but raised him five.

An Interesting Exhibit Scheduled For Stampede

If you intend to take in the Calgary Exhibition and Stampede this year, make it a point to see the Veterans' Land Act exhibit on Production Line Farming. This exhibit will contain models of up-to-date house housing buildings with milking parlors for dairying and buildings for beef production; layouts of farmsteads; samples of grasses and legumes and interesting facts relevant to the Veterans' Land Act.

Models include those made up by Calgary Region of the Veterans' Land Act, the Canada Croosoting Company and, through the courtesy of the Director of the Veterans' Land Act, Brigadier T. J. Rutherford, a very extensive exhibit which was shown at the Royal Winter Fair, Toronto.

The director of the Veterans' Land Act, Brigadier T. J. Rutherford, has pioneered this cheaper and better type of farm building construction in Canada, and it is through his efforts that all Settlement Officers are trained to help veterans in farm planning, farm labor, efficiency and management in order to promote better living conditions through improved revenues.

Your settlement officer, Mr. H. Douglas Smith, will be there in person on Tuesday, July 9th, and will enjoy meeting you and discussing the exhibit and any problems you may have.

Every effort has been made by your settlement officer and the Veterans' Land Act to obtain the best models possible. Be sure to see this exhibit, which will be located directly east of the Bessborough Building.

HE COULD, I RECKON

TV and radio programs featuring rustic renditions by a guitarist, banjoist and fiddler usually with high ratings. Square dances keep many teen-agers out of trouble. Thousands go to hear mountain music concerts like the "Grand Old Opry" ensemble.

The bull fiddle player of such a troupe once was asked whether he and his partners could read music. "I reckon we kin in a pinch," he answered, "but not enough to spoil our playin'."

SERVICE BOARD NOTED BY W. E. SNYDER Agricultural Service Board

WATCH THAT FUME DRIFT!
During the past week I was called out to have a look at the results of drifting 2-4-D fumes and the damage it can do.

A farmer called in aircraft to spray a field to control weeds. About one-half mile from this field is a farmstead with windbreaks of poplar, caragana, lilac and a garden. All of this vegetation mentioned showed unmistakable droopiness, characteristics of 2-4-D. Any small weeds in the same vicinity were either laid down flat or nearly so.

Apparently a high volatile type of 2-4-D had been used by the aircraft operator. He had done a swell job of killing weeds on the field that he had sprayed but the fume drift was also terrific. If there had been adjoining fields of alfalfa or clover they would have undoubtedly have been seriously damaged.

If you are a spray rig operator take every precaution so that you do not inflict damage to adjoining susceptible vegetation. I strongly recommend the use of a low volatile type of 2-4-D or MCP ester. There is very little, if any, danger of fume drift from these herbicides if used under normal conditions. It is, of course, never a wise procedure to operate a spray rig in the presence of a stiff breeze or moderate wind. Under these conditions several things can happen. There is some danger of a little fume drift to adjacent susceptible plants; second, the spray will not settle down on the weeds properly; and third, the rate of evaporation is high, resulting in considerable loss of killing power from the chemical used.

If at all possible pick a calm, warm day to do your spraying and you will be fairly sure of achieving the desired results.

"Work-horse jobs are a cinch for Fargo Trucks"

says Eastern Construction Company, Limited

1. It's the ruggedness Fargo builds into a truck that pays off. Eastern's big job, day in, day out, hauling masonry to construction jobs like this big $2,000,000 project. It's a punishing schedule that requires reliability.

2. This Fargo "construction job" can meet all the demands placed on it — and then some! Frame has double-width front crossmembers. Springs are of durable chrome-alloy steel.

3. Extra V-8 power, rated from 180 to 232 h.p., makes Fargo trucks the power leaders in their price ranges, from agile Fargo express and panel models to rugged heavy-duty trucks.

4. Safer operation is a cinch, too. Big wrap-around windshield and optional wrap-around rear window, constant-speed electric windshield wipers are just a few of many safeguards.

NEW OLIVER 60 BALER

Turns Shorter, Handles Easier
Bales Faster

Here's real top-speed baling. You can turn out as much as 10 tons per hour with this new Oliver twine-tie Model 60—even in small, hilly, irregular fields.

A short-coupled, "pivot-balanced" PTO drive is the answer. You can crank the tractor wheels right up to the bale case, roll around the sharpest corner without setup. You never need to shut off PTO power. You save time on every turn you make—get your hay safely in bales when it's at its best.

There are many other new features you'll want to see—so come in soon. Look over the new swinging drawbar, new weather-proof twine can, new smooth-action shuttle brake, new over-running clutch (extra), new safety device. Engine model also available.

CLOSING THE DOOR!

The election was over. The ballots had been cast and counted. An east-bound main line train hurried toward Ottawa. A train official stopped in the coach and announced: "The government has been defeated." Then the late Sir Wilfrid Laurier rose to his feet, smiled, bowed and sat down. A party who saw this remarked: "There we saw a great Canadian graciously accepting the will of the people." Recently we have seen another leader bowing to the will of the Canadian people. This is democracy in action. Good leaders make more and better leaders a necessity. Good services always set the stage for more and better services. Sacrifices are lost unless they inspire more severe services.

Turning to The Word, we read "How often would I have gathered your children together, as a hen gathers her brood under her wings, out you would not." How often our leaders in state and church alike, yearn, with sincerity and tenderness, to help their people, only to find their help refused. Sometimes because of a misunderstanding, and sometimes because there is no desire to improve. We must always remember both leaders and people have limitations and great possibilities.

A lady who loved good pictures stepped into the studio of Gustavo Dore. Dore was busy finishing one of his facial pictures of Jesus. She watched the painter apply his art, and then said to him, "You must love Jesus much to be able to paint Him so." Dore made this reply: "Love Him, I should think I love Him. But if I loved Him more I could paint Him better." That is true of all service. If we each and all loved more we would each and all serve our day and our country better.

In Rio de Janeiro they placed a large statue of Jesus on the mountain side overlooking the harbor. The Pope sent his blessing. Marconi, the inventor of the skill and greatness of this undertaking. That statue, which can be seen from a great distance does, without doubt, remind many of the services that Jesus so humbly and yet so efficiently renders the people of all countries and all ages. Let us not forget, however, that Christ is more than a form. He is best remembered as a spiritual personality when is the centre and source of all Christian living. He it is who makes loving services possible. He is the patron of all good leadership.

"About Ben Adhem" may his tribe increase.
Awoke one night from a great dream of peace
And saw, within the moonlight
In his room,
Making it rich and like a lily
in bloom,
An angel writing in a book of gold:
Exceeding peace had made
Ben Adhem bold;
And to the presence in the vision
he said:
"What writest thou?" — the vision
raised its head,
And with a look made of all
sweet accord Answered, "The names of those who love the Lord."
"And is mine one?" asked Aben.
"May not so?" replied the angel.
Aben spoke more low, but cheerily still, and said,
I pray thee then, write me as one who loves his fellow man."

With this thought we are closing the door on this column "By The Way."

Editor's Note: It is with reluctance that we have just completed putting into print the last message from Rev. Stanton that will appear in our column. The Rev. and his good wife will be leaving shortly to take up residence in Edmonton. We've enjoyed our association with our weekly correspondent who has "lived" this column for many months, past and from the comments that have passed over our desk we know it's going to be a tough assignment to fill the space in our paper that has been occupied by "By The Way." To Rev. and Mrs. Stanton we join their many friends in wishing them the best of everything in their new field.

WHY PLANES CRASH ? ? ?

Be encouraged to know that if airplanes crash in the future there is every chance that an inquest will find why. A gadget is being made that automatically records the occurrence of such mishaps as mental fatigue, fire, engine failure, fuel shortage, pressure breakdown, radio faults. The gadget, unlike the passengers, is shockproof, fireproof and unsinkable.

WEDDINGS

RUISSEN — PRATT

The United Church at Carstairs was the scene of a lovely wedding on June 15. Rev. A. W. Magee officiated at a double-ring ceremony when Miss Georgina Pratt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. K. Pratt became the bride of Cornelius Jan (Jim) Ruisen, son of Mrs. A. Sanders of Port Alberni, B.C.

Escorted down the aisle on the arm of her father, the bride was radiantly beautiful in a princess style floor-length white paper tulle gown with lace inserts. Her bodice, with a neckline of lace and her point sleeves, matched her finger-tip veil, which was held in place by a seed pearl crown. Her only jewelry was heirloom pearl earrings which had been worn by the bride's great-grandmother on her wedding day. The bride carried a bouquet of red roses.

She was attended by her sister, Patsy, as maid of honor; Carol Sprague as bridesmaid, and Margaret and Virginia, sisters of the bride, as flower girls. Patsy and Carol donned cocktail length dresses of sheared nylon tulle with a beaded sweetheart neckline in blue and pink respectively. They carried pink and blue carnations. The flower girls looked sweet in matching rose nylon sheer dresses and carried carnation bouquets.

The groom was attended by the bride's brother, Bob, and by Mr. Harry Van Tetering. Guests were ushered by Ed Pratt.

Miss Innie Polier sang "The Wedding Prayer" at the wedding and "Because" at the reception. Organist was Art Holmberg of Forestburg.

The bride's mother chose a tangerine dress and duster, with white accessories and a white carnation corsage.

The reception was held in the United Church hall. Rev. A. W. Magee proposed the toast to the bride and groom, to which the groom responded. Other greetings were given by Mr. G. Carter, Calgary; Mr. S. Coult, Forestburg and good wishes sent from the groom's family.

For travelling the bride donned a beige sheath dress and matching duster, with white accessories and a red rose corsage. The happy couple left for a honeymoon in Great Falls and will later reside in Forestburg.

BUSINESS ON UPSPURGE.
FARM INCOMES JUMP
Agricultural machinery, electrical goods and car dealers shared in a tremendous resurgence of prosperity throughout Alberta during the first four months of 1957.

The only commercial groups which obtained less revenue than in the corresponding period last year were oilfield supplies, lumber and building materials, boots and shoes.

Highest revenue among wholesale trades reported by the provincial bureau of statistics went to groceries — $56,287,226 for the months Jan-April 1957 and up by 10.8 per cent over the first four months of 1956.

Next highest turnover was marked up by car dealers with $45,372,963, or a rise of 26.5 per cent. On the farms total income from grain increased during the same period from $47,049,000 in 1956 to $63,742,000 in 1957. Estimated income from livestock rose from $44,085,000 to $50,831,000.

Total value of eggs and poultry went up from $2,266,000 to $2,556,000 and dairy products dropped slightly from $5,979,000 to $5,903,000.

DISTRICT NEWS

M.V.B.C. NEWS

(From Our Own Correspondent)

The W.M.S. convention was very successful and a report of it can be found elsewhere in this paper. Mrs. Lydia Suder, faculty member, is again director of the society.

President and Mrs. Taylor left for Indiana on Monday and expect to reach their destination on Thursday; registration day for theological students. Their address will be Winona Lake School of Theology, Winona Lake, Indiana. They will be there until the end of July and perhaps a letter from you would be appreciated.

A number of the students working out of town were here for the weekend and attended the W.M.S. convention. More of them will be back this weekend. Miss Eby will be entertaining her Sunday school class for dinner next Sunday at the college. Many have said they would come.

Arthur Eby is making new bookshelves in the library and will have them finished in a day or two. This will make room for new books that are being catalogued at present. We expect to get quite a number of good books before the next year begins.

Camp meeting will soon be here, beginning on July 4th. The ladies of the church will be very busy cleaning the school for the occasion this coming Thursday. They always do a good job in getting ready for the people who stay here during camp.

Three graduates of the college will be speaking some time during the camp meeting this summer. Rev. John Gamble, Rev. Carl Lehman and Miss Myrtle Anderson have returned from their foreign work as missionaries, and the last from Africa. Watch for announcements of the camp meeting for their assignments.

Miss Grace Eby has gone to Acadia Valley for a few days. She accompanied Mrs. Taylor and the children that far and will return in time to be in the Shepherd store by Tuesday.

Material has arrived for renovation of the chapel. The Alumni Association of the College is undertaking this work and will have the chapel looking very nice by the time school opens in the fall. The W.M.S. will look after the kitchen also. Little by little some important things are being done here, and we appreciate the many friends who make it possible.

Highland Notes

(From Our Own Correspondent)

(Intended For Last Week)

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Loughheed were Saturday evening visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Bob Moore of Sundre.

Several folk of the district gathered at Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Haug's on Saturday afternoon for a picnic. The men who are sawing in that area were lucky enough to get in on the lunch part of it.

Mrs. Eddie Adams, Janet, Larry and Terry King visited Eddie at Brooks recently, where he is employed at the present time.

Vicky Scott and Rickey spent the weekend with Mrs. Scott and Alfred.

Seismic crews have been at work again, we see by the condition of the road past Edie Erickson's place. It has been impassable for cars and people have to go around by McCormick's road to get out.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe McGaffin and Jane, and Edna Bruns were Sunday supper guests of the Bob Moore family on Sunday.

We are pleased to report that Mrs. Halvorson Sr. is steadily improving in health and was able to enjoy herself at the picnic at Haug's.

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Lyle have moved from the Lamb farm to Ratcliff's place. We understand Mary and the children will stay there for the summer while Les goes back to the bush.

Notes From D.A.

By Howard J. Patcher

There is always the danger of wearing out through depletion of soil fertility caused by cropping practices which mine the land. The danger is immediate when the fibre and organic matter content of the land is low; under these conditions, both wind and water, may take place and the land is lost. Our soil, if properly handled, will not wear out or erode away. Furthermore, when the soil management practices are good, productivity can be increased with no detrimental effects to the land. Today the margin between cost and selling is quite narrow and with overhead, fixed charges and labor costs always present it is imperative to have a high level of production if farming is to be a profitable business.

Soil is made up of many ingredients: some dead and some living; the care of the latter is often neglected but is most important. Life in the soil is organisms which break down and make the nutrient or plant food available to the growing plants. To have sufficient organism life in the soil there must be ample organic material, decay and decomposing plant and animal matter. This material is plentiful in the virgin soils and to maintain the soil's productivity it must be incorporated in the land by various means such as trash residue, grass and legume crops, and manure.

When the living portion of the soil is cared for and the fibre content is ample to prevent erosion, the tilth will be good. The growing plants must have food if the soil has a low level of fertility, the proper use of fertilizer can supply the required nutrients and the land will be in balance.

Land in balance, that is with adequate nutrients for plant growth enough to fibre to prevent erosion and ample micro-organisms to break down raw materials for plant use, production will be high and the produce will be of good quality.

A balanced farming program using good rotation, with proper fertilization, will put the soil in balance and then crops will be produced to the level of the soil's capability.

WESTCOTT UNITED CHURCH W.A. HONOR MRS. STANTON

Seventeen members and five visitors met at the church, with Mrs. Bill Tohn as hostess for the June meeting of the W.A. Mrs. O. Youngs, vice-president, conducted the meeting. Devotion was taken by Mrs. C. Fischer; her topic was on Job, namely his devotion to God. Roll call was answered by a flower or plant from the Bible.

Arrangements were made to hold a Sunday school picnic, the afternoon of July 19. Everyone welcome, picnic lunch.

Citizenship topic on "Home Making" was given by Miss Viola McNaughton.

Mrs. Stantion was presented with a cup and saucer by Mrs. Cliff Eckstrand, who wished her every happiness in her new home in Edmonton. Mrs. Stantion thanked everyone fittingly.

There will be no meetings during July and August. Please note: a hearty welcome is extended to the congregation and friends to attend an hour of fellowship at a pot luck dinner in the church basement following the services on Sunday, June 30, in honor of Rev. and Mrs. Stantion.

ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCEMENT

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Reinhardt of Didsbury announce the engagement of their daughter, Lily May, to Mr. Alvin Allen Stange, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Stange of Clearsholt. The wedding will take place at Redeemer Lutheran Church, Didsbury, July 10, 1957, at 3:00 p.m. 26-11p
